

CALL FOR PAPERS

INTERNATIONAL JOURNAL OF TECHNOLOGY AND INCLUSIVE EDUCATION

IJTIE

The International Journal of Technology and Inclusive Education is a peer reviewed journal published by Infonomics Society, United Kingdom : http:// www.infonomics-society.org

IJTIE recognizes the value of using “Assistive and Instructional Technologies” to improve learning outcomes for students with disabilities and other traditionally marginalized populations who receive classroom instruction in schools and general education settings.

Some examples of possible themes for the journal include:

- Assistive technologies in Special Needs Education i.e. services that encompass the educational, physical, cognitive and emotional needs of students with learning disabilities and learning differences.
- Using technology to overcome social barriers i.e. issues pertaining to race, ethnicity, tribe, gender, rural-urban disparities and indigenous populations.
- Pre-service teachers’ knowledge ,skills and dispositions to promote technology proficiency and inclusive practice.
- The role of education administrators in technology integration and implementation to build inclusive schools and classrooms.
- Reaching parents and communities to develop an awareness of new technologies and their potential applications in inclusive education
- Legislative/policy progress toward educational technology development in the emerging field of inclusive education.

The IJTIE forum for electronic publication allows academicians and teachers from various educational fields with cross-disciplinary interests to share research findings on the evolution of technologies and inclusive education within and across a range of countries. The journal encourages the submission of original research papers with a comparative focus.

IJTIE will publish full length papers (7000 words), short articles (3000 words), as well as critiques, book reviews, software reviews and website reviews.

We invite you to submit your manuscripts via e-mail to ijtepapers@infonomics-society.org. The journal will be published twice a year, in June and December. Guidelines for authors and additional details are available on the website.

IJTIE is committed to the advancement of Educational Technology Research and Development aimed at making inclusive education a reality in the global community of the 21st century.
